carpe diem...

...seize the day

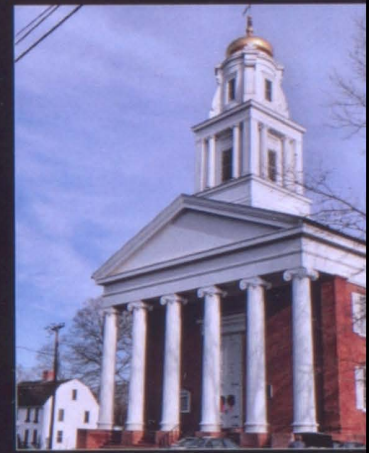

The contemporary phrase "carpe diem" originates from an ancient Latin poem. The phrase is popularly translated as "seize the day," and it encourages people to take advantage of opportunities, make the best of their time, and take risks. There is no doubt that everyone at Suffield High School faces their own challenges and is able to overcome them in their own way, perhaps with the help of the phrase, "carpe diem." We are fortunate to attend a diverse school - however, we all have something in common. Every person has a dream of their own, and every person will take the initiative to shape their lives into something they are proud of. Our seniors have four years of thrilling experience behind them, and are well on their way to doing great things, while our freshmen still have time to learn more about themselves in the years to come. On behalf of the 2013 yearbook staff, we would like to dedicate the 74th publication of this yearbook to every person with a dream, every person with a vision, and every person with the ambition to accomplish their goals: In other words, every person at Suffield High School.

YEARBOOK STAFF 2013

From January 2012 to May 2013, a group of 10 students worked hard to create the 74th Suffield High School Sagitta yearbook. We met the challenge of adjusting to a new publisher and everybody worked hard to complete our deadlines and reach our goals. For the first time ever, more of the spring semester sports are included in the book due to a later final submission date. Overall, this year proved to be one of many changes. After deciding to incorporate "carpe diem" into our theme, the rest of the book was easy to design. Collectively, we wanted to design a yearbook theme that incorporated classic elements of older books while thinking creatively to introduce new concepts. In order to do this, we had to search thoroughly in past books for ideas as well as brainstorm new creative directions. In the end, we were left with a 160 page book that we believe is a big breath of fresh air for our high school community. The production of this yearbook has certainly been a long but extremely rewarding three semesters, and we hope you enjoy! Farewell and "carpe diem" Suffield High School!

Sincere regards,

The 2013 Yearbook Staff

BELOW After advising yearbook for years, Mr. Dudeck passed on the torch to Mrs. Scandura, a second-year business teacher here at SHS. We would like to thank her for taking on this daunting task so early on in her time here at SHS.

BELOW Jillian Seymour adjusts her camera's settings in order to get the perfect shot every time. Both Paul and Jillian were a great help with the yearbook's photography all along the way.

RIGHT Nadiya Goode, Brianna Francelj, Savannah Farhad and Katherine Eastman review some recent Spirit Night photos, and are clearly having fun while doing so.

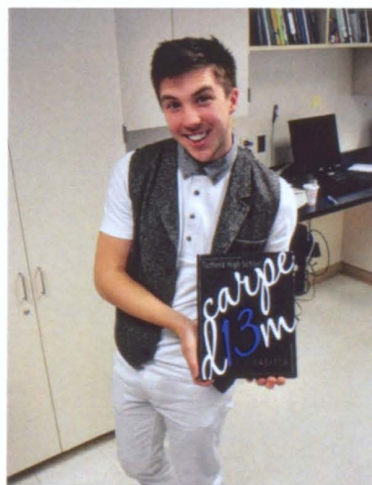

FAR RIGHT Paul Struck and Marie Peckham were pleasantly surprised when Smokey the Bear paid a visit to the yearbook room during the Ag Expo.

BELOW Paul Struck proudly displays the yearbook cover that was mailed to us shortly before the final book submission. This was a great source of reference and it definitely got the staff excited for the final product.

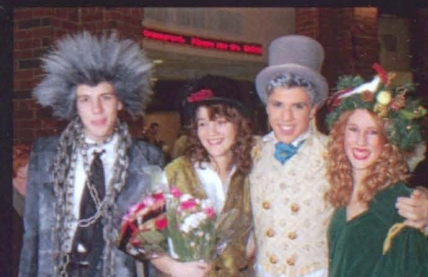

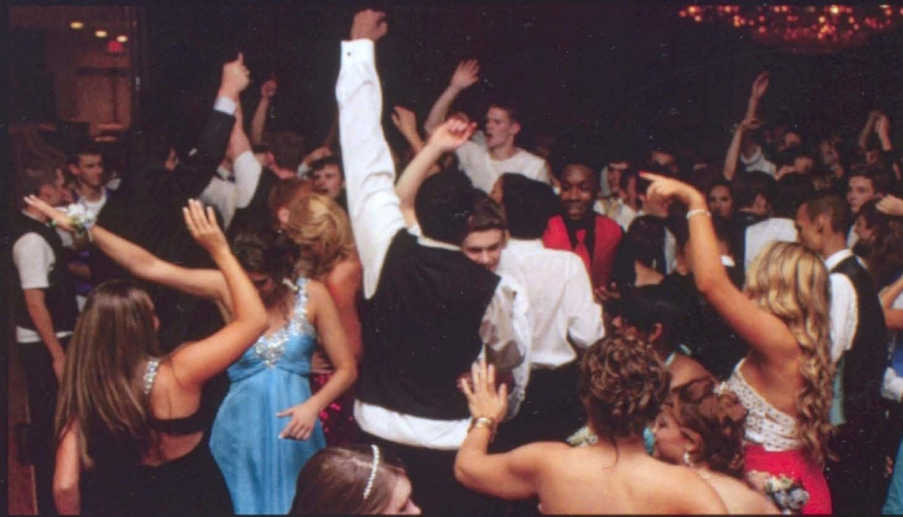

ABOVE Nadiya Goode, Kate Butler and Katherine Eastman collectively work on identifying players in a sport layout. But not without a photo, of course!

Here comes the rest of our lives

since 1995, the Class of 2013

As 8th graders of Suffield Middle School, we woke up to a rainy morning on June 18th, 2009. We had high hopes that the skies would clear just in time for Class Night photos, but the rain persisted throughout the day and night, directly reflecting our feelings about leaving behind the familiarity of middle school. In the summer of 2009 at orientation, we entered Suffield High School as inexperienced freshmen, intimidated by the inevitable obstacles that high school would pose. Not only did the same Suffield Middle School students arrive to the high school, but several 9th graders from around Connecticut were welcomed to the Suffield community via FFA and the Hartford Choice program. As a class, we were able to adjust to high school life and, thus, we began making our mark on the school. The Class of 2013 has experienced all that high school has to offer, and more. We will surely remember events like Spirit Night, Volleyball Marathon and PowderPuff Football. The list goes on. Additionally, we may reminisce on when we witnessed four soccer championships in a row, when we won 2nd place in Spirit Night as mere sophomores, when we got to participate in the school Lipdub, when we saw outstanding drama productions, and especially when we went to prom. However, we are now ready to reflect on our unforgettable four years of growth and change. As a group of 213 student, we have shown to the high school community that our four years have prepared us well for what is to come. Many will go off to college, some will immediately begin working, and others, well who knows? One thing is certain, however, and that is that we will always have our memories of life here in high school, and that it really has been a wild ride for the Class of 2013. Here comes the rest of our lives!

Seniors

Since freshman year, the 2013 Class Council members have been doing everything they can to make our high school experience the best it can be. Holding a position on Class Council can be a difficult task, as clearly shown by any of the countless duties that members of the council must perform. From organizing events like the prom, Mr. Suffield, and the senior outing to Brownstone, to hosting the dunk tank at Suffield On The Green, times could be pretty crazy. However, they always get the job done. On behalf of the senior class, we would like to send a huge thank you to the Class Council and our class advisors, Mrs. Potter and Mrs. Kruk. We would also like to wish Mrs. Potter a happy retirement as she "graduates" with our class after dedicating thirty-five years to educating teenagers.

the Class of 2013

from everyone here at...

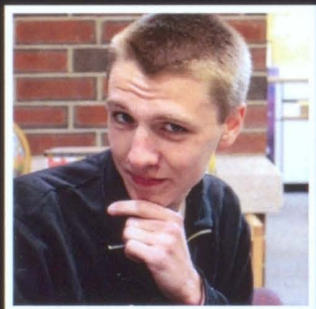

A photograph of the Suffield High School entrance. In the foreground, a blue sign with white text is mounted on two red brick pillars. The sign reads "SUFFIELD HIGH SCHOOL". Behind the sign, there is a parking lot with several cars and a large, multi-story brick school building with several gabled roofs. Some trees with white blossoms are visible in front of the building. The sky is overcast.

Your Four Years

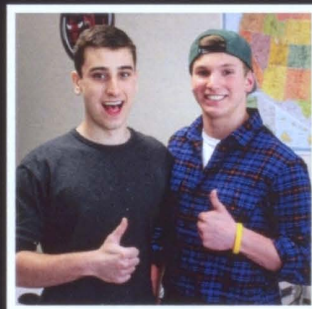

Senior year's been a great summation of my four years. It's felt great to take on some leadership roles and enjoy my last year.

— Kevin Kulas
2013

It was a lot of hard work but definitely worth it in the end!

— Micaela Tracey,
2014

Being a sophomore has been easier than freshman year. There's some more time to relax but it can get a little boring from time to time.

— Anthony Abou-Francis and Luke Peterson,
2015

It's definitely been a huge step up from 8th grade. It's nice being a freshman though. There's more independence and people to look up to as role models.

Underclass

at Suffield High School

Some believe that senior year is the only fun and exciting part of high school. However there are points of interest to be found across the spectrum. Everyone tells you that high school is the best four years of your life, and it definitely is. We all go through changes, and with each new year comes something even bigger. At one point in time, we are all freshmen and have to start at the bottom finding our footing in a new school. Sophomores are still new to the scene, but now know their way around and are catching onto the workings of Suffield High. Nearing the end, juniors enter their hardest and most important year when they start thinking about college and their upcoming futures. Overall, high school is an unforgettable time no matter what grade you are in.

Advice to Underclassmen

Definitely get involved in clubs and participate in activities. It definitely makes your high school experience that much more worthwhile.

— Meghan Corr,
2014

Make sure you study hard as well as keep the homeostasis.

— Ben Cheng,
2013

Don't take any AP's or honors classes. Don't stress yourself, it's not worth it.

— Marie Peckham,
2013

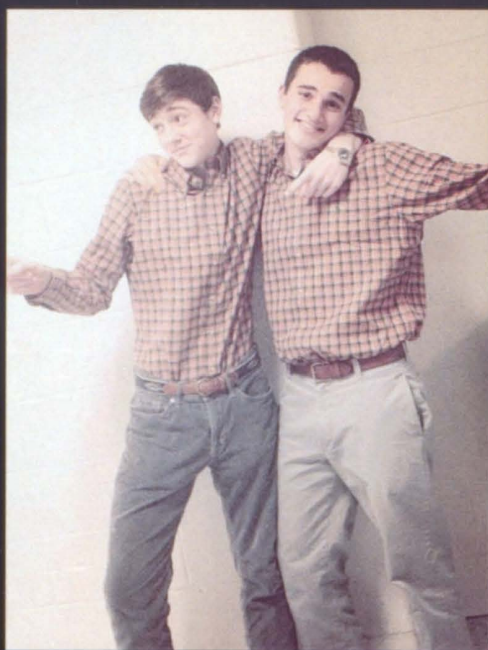

Take any and all opportunities that present themselves!

the Class of 2014

As junior year comes to a close for the Class of 2014, students greatly anticipate a stress-free summer and the beginning of their senior year. Junior year is a difficult time for many at Suffield High School, and throughout the year it has been clear to everyone that there was a lot of stress in the air for the juniors. After countless late nights, early mornings, cram sessions, SAT prep and Dunkin' runs, juniors are exhausted with schoolwork and simply need a break. Now that this year is over, that break will finally come. In addition to the seemingly endless schoolwork, several students are beginning their college search by going on tours and researching schools. Many can agree that this is not an easy task to begin, especially keeping in mind the beginning of the application process in the coming fall. The junior class of Suffield High School has shown a great level of maturity since their freshman year, and it is obvious that they can overcome challenges with some ease. The light at the end of the tunnel is becoming easier to see, but there are still many obstacles ahead. With three years behind them, high school may seem nearly over, but the best has only yet to come. Members of the Class of 2014 have surely beat their junior year successfully, and are ready to face the challenges that lie ahead of them, because the beat will always go on.

"Well I guess this is growing up"

the Class of 2015

Having completed half of their high school careers, members of the Class of 2015 look back on their sophomore year and reflect on the growth they've experienced. Classes usually aren't too difficult, everyone is still considered to be underclassmen, and most are still unable to drive. However, it is a great time overall. Spirit Night is more enjoyable and less intimidating, the excitement of purchasing class rings fills the halls, and some even begin their first AP course with Mr. Dumais. The sophomores of Suffield High School have shown to everyone that they used their experiences from freshman year to their advantage. They are now much more mature young adults who are ready to face any challenges that the rest of high school has to offer them. This was clear when students cheered them on at Spirit Night during their Las Vegas skit and in the spring when everyone was able to see how nicely the class had cleaned up for semi-formal. Additionally, the students in APUSH have proven to be strong workers, especially considering the difficulty level of the course and it's odd first semester placement to accomodate for the 2012 Election. Collectively, sophomore year has been a great time for the Class of 2015, and high school will only get more difficult. But, I guess this is growing up.

"Welcome to the jungle"

the Class of 2016

After having just completed middle school, students in the Class of 2016 have finished their freshman year successfully. The transition from eighth grade to ninth grade is exceptionally difficult, and the upperclassmen of Suffield High always commend the freshmen for being able to handle this new experience so efficiently. Their first glimpses of high school life were seen in August at Freshman Orientation, and it was obvious to S.W.A.G. members and administrators that they were excited to begin their long but rewarding journey. Freshman year is a time to test the waters of high school and to see where you fit in the grand scheme of things. One also needs to be able to adjust to the increased level of schoolwork in addition to handling more responsibility. Fortunately, the ninth graders were able to prove their responsibility and maturity after just one year, and it was clear to everyone else in school that they used this year to their advantage. After one year, the class of 2016 has had a taste of what Suffield High School has to offer for them, and next year will surely be their best yet!

BELOW Shea McCusker, Sophie Bymark, Hannah Consolini, Delaney Tierney and Julia Picard are excited to finish middle school and take the next big step in their lives.

The faculty and staff at Suffield High School are a very devoted and hard working group of individuals who strive to bring joy, as well as learning into the classroom. Every teacher at Suffield High works to create a bond with each one of their students. This devotion and hard work results in the wonderful learning environment that we are blessed with here at Suffield High School. Some members of the faculty even coach sports teams, direct plays or advise clubs here at the high school. Without the talented faculty and staff, Suffield High School would not be the same. It is certain that the faculty and staff at SHS always do their absolute best to make our high school experience worthwhile.

at Suffield High School

Sports are a huge part of the student body here at Suffield High School. Almost everyone you meet will show intense enthusiasm for one or more sports teams here at Suffield High School. With strong players and supportive fans in each sporting event of all three seasons, everyone is sure to see why Suffield High School's athletics program is nothing to mess with. And from soccer championships to the Suffield/Windsor Locks basketball rivalry, there is something new and exciting to see every year. Sports here at SHS are surely something to be proud of.

BOYS LACROSSE

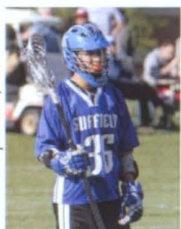

VARSITY AND JUNIOR VARSITY

The boys' varsity team had a great seasons in 2013. The team set a new personal record by making it to the finals in the "Break out the Sticks" tournament, playing against teams from the Seneca Nation as a part of their annual spring training trip to the Seneca Nation. In addition, the team qualified to enter the State Tournament for the sixth year in a row. The boys were honored to receive the 2012 Connecticut Lacrosse Officials Association Sportsmanship Award: the highest recognition a team can earn from the Officials Association. Adam Holmes, a 2013 graduate, was the high scorer of the season with 48 goals overall. The team will be saying goodbye to many talented seniors this year, but everyone is optimistic that this successful streak will last.

The boys' Junior Varsity team formed some tight bonds in 2012! "Star defender" Anthony Abou-Francis raved, "It was a great season, I love being part of the team!" Jack Moriarty stood out for his high number of goals and earned the admiration of his teammates. Mike Moriarty amazed the team by scoring a goal himself, even though he's on defense. Overall, the boys had 13 wins and 2 losses during the season, proving that many of the talented JV players are ready to move up to Varsity. The Varsity players in 2012 are certainly ready to have their JV friends become their teammates. Zach Salters also stood out for being a great team player and improving this season. After so much time and practice together, the JV team has become something of a family and will only continue to get stronger.

GIRLS LACROSSE

VARSITY

For the girls' 2012 Varsity Lacrosse Team, it was an average season. Though the girls had a record of 4 wins and 16 losses, the team held many star players that infused an ambitious and aspiring mode into the team. Such players were 2012 graduates Nicole Gagnon and McKenna Tierney, who made All State and Academic All State, respectively. Moreover, the 2013 seniors, Nur Hamideh and Gabby Arruda made All Conference players, an incredible achievement for the girls who were juniors at the time. The team in general experienced close relationships amongst each other that they will take with them in life!

The JV Lacrosse Team looked amazing this season with their developing skills and talent. They worked hard each and every practice to prepare for the next game in hopes of a win. The dedication from each player was very important to the team. Specific players were 2013 senior Angeline Smith, and at the time sophmores Kelsey Hellyar, Sam Conway, and Devin Van Houten. There are many other key players that we will be watching in the future such as Breann Frawley and Sadie Wood. Suffield High School was proud of the team and their endeavors. BOYS BASEBALL

The 2012 Varsity baseball team had an overall average of 10-11-0. This was a higher average than last year's 9-11-0. This team was made up of mostly seniors with a few underclassmen. The highest winning game they had was 11 to 1 against Canton. "This was one of the best games the team played," said Coach Kadamus. This was a very eventful season for the team, and the seniors that have now moved on to college will be missed for their contributions to the team and team spirit.

"As my first season coaching baseball, the guys did a great job by us learning throughout the season together." This was said by Coach Drago at the end of the season.

This team showed that even though they only won 6 games and lost 9, they put a great overall effort toward the games they played. Most of the games they lost were close in score and they tried their hardest to do their best and try to win. The overall winning streak was two games and the highest scoring game was against SMSA when they won 9-2.

Coach Drago said, "I picked this game because it was a true team effort and everyone stepped it up either on defense, offence, or pitching. It was a nice game as a coach to be part of!"

GIRLS SOFTBALL

VARSITY

The 2012 season was an outstanding one for the Girls' Varsity Softball Team. With a record of 13-3 the girls finished third in their conference and seeded twelfth heading into the post season. Of the three games lost, two were to perennial rival Granby (2-0, 1-0) and the other was a 6-5 loss to Ellington. In the Hartford Courant's final softball ratings Suffield was ranked ninth in area towns. Over April vacation the team traveled to Disney's Wide World of Sports where they played .500 ball against a number of different teams in a total of eight games. The team was led by senior captains and 2011 All Conference players Emily Forzono and Meghan Maliga. Meghan Maliga and Angelica Banning were chosen for this year's All Conference and Maliga for All State Honors as well.

The Junior Varsity Softball Team had an exceptional season as well. With only two returning players and positions with no one to fill, players really stepped up this season. Everyone was ready and willing to play in new positions when needed and always give it there all. Even though it was her first year coaching, Miss Whitely led the Junior Varsity team through an unforgettable season. With terrific attitudes and dedication the Junior Varsity team finished the season with a 6-4 record. Although their record was not as impressive as the Varsity Softball team's, these Junior Varsity players had fun just playing the game and having fun with friends. GIRLS GOLF

The 2012 season was a rough season for the Suffield High School Girls' Golf Team, finishing 1-11. The star player of the team was Senior Kim Mai, who played in 12 matches and was a medalist in 10 of those matches. Kim also earned "All Conference" for four years and made it into the State Tournament her fourth year. Also on the team was Molly Zatony who was second on the team. Molly has improved her golfing skills from the first two years that she was a member of the team and has an average in the low 50's. New to the team were Cara Waterman and Lea Lindsay who each demonstrated good sportsmanship and helped to make the team well-rounded. Each of the players earned Academic Scholar Honors for their time and dedication put into the 2012 season.

The 2012 Boys' Golf Team had an amazing season overall and finished 9-6. Each win helped the team to advance further and to qualify for the State Tournament. Consisting of nine boys, the team was led by star players Will Morris, Parker Lattanzio and Connor Beaulieu. Senior Will Morris was a part of the team throughout his high school career and was highly determined each year to do better. Newcomers Sean Sullivan, Matt Guminiak, Josh Stack and John Stryeck also contributed to the outstanding season. Juniors Peter Meehan and AJ Price often competed in matches and helped lead the team to many of their victories. Coach McCullough helped boost the boys skills during practices and is very proud of the hard work and determination of his team.

BOYS OUTDOOR TRACK

The boys' team was phenomenal this year: they hosted the NCCC championship and placed third. The graduating class of 2012 took with them a group of valuable teammates: Dan Moroney, Jake Picard, Curtis Cauley, Dalton Shank, Nick LeBron, and Brendan Kirschbaum. Dan Moroney broke the school record for the 1600 m race and the 3200 m race. Impressively, the previous record for the 3200 m was from 1975. Dalton Shank, Colton Grob, David Biederman, and Tyler Arciszewski also broke the school record for the 4x400 m race, the previous record from 1977. The 2012 All-Conference participants were Dan Moroney, David Biederman, Jimmy Clark, and DJ Labarre. SHS will sorely miss its graduated athletes and continue to cherish its current ones. As usual, the girls performed fantastically during the 2012 season. They hosted the NCCC championship and were undefeated in it, winning for the third year in a row. The seniors graduating in 2012 made huge contributions and certainly left their mark on the team: Brianna Bishop broke the school record in the heptathlon and Peri Stevens was NCCC champion in the 100 hurdles and 300 hurdles, to name a few. The senior class has won a total of three conference championships as well. SHS is so proud of its talented athletes and looks forward to more greatness in the future!

BOYS TENNIS

VARSITY

Regardless of a slow start for boys' tennis in 2012, the season kicked off after the first few matches. 2012 graduate Liam Brown, who originally played first singles moved to first doubles with Alex Voisine, who played second singles before. A number of talented freshmen also joined the ranks this year, including singles players Quinn Richard and Nick Ingari, and doubles player Luke Peterson. Although the team enjoyed fooling around and listening to Alex Treiber's tennis grunts, they knew how to get down to business. Alex Voisine and Liam Brown did well in the NCCC tournament and went on to play in the state tournament against the best doubles teams in CT. Even though the beloved 2012 graduates have moved on, the team is still looking forward to the future and plan to do just as well in the NCCC and state tournaments.

The 2012 Lady Wildcats ended a rebuilding season with a 10-9 record for the regular season. The calm leadership and steady play of senior Captain Vicky Ho provided a consistency and work ethic for the young team to emulate, after graduating 6 varsity starters the year before. The young squad showed a lot of fight toward the second half of the season, qualifying for the team tournament - exceeding even the most optimistic hopes for the season. Senior Captain Vicky Ho qualified individually for the State Open Tournament at the Tennis Center at Yale University. Vicky was the first Suffield player in four years to win her opening round match, but unfortunately drew the two-time defending State Open Champ. BOYS SOCCER

Congratulations to our back-to-back State Champions, nice job boys! In the fall 2012 season, the team went almost undefeated with a 19-1 average. Throughout the tough season, our boys played their best and all rose to their full potential. This was proved when they carried the State Champion trophy back to Suffield High School for the second year in a row. The State game was played against Bacon Academy and had many members of the Suffield Community cheering the boys on. Captains Peter Meehan, Chris Luongo, Connor Beaulieu and Sean Sullivan lead the team to this great victory. Ryan DellaPenna scored the winning goal of the game in overtime and was also awarded M.V.P of the State game. GIRLS SOCCER

VARSITY

The 2012 Girls' Soccer team had a rare season, coupled with tough struggles but an amazing record. They struggled with many injuries, especially with two ACL tears from Alexa Keney and Alexa Champagne. Many underclassmen stepped up to the plate and displayed great sportsmanship as a team. One player in particular was Brittany Champagne, who broke the record of most goals in a single season (35), with her new record of 37. Thus, they ended the season with a 15-1-2 record (win-loss-tie). Winning the NCCC and making it to the quarter finals of states was also among the team's accomplishments this season. These girls worked incredibly hard throughout the season and played with immense passion, amazing job girls!

BOYS FOOTBALL

Unlike most sports Suffield High School does not have a football team. These athletes take the bus after school everyday in the fall to Windsor Locks, where they go from being a Wildcat to a Raider. In 2011 Marty Powers became the second coach in the history of the football team since it was established in 1970. This year he worked to improve these young men not only as athletes, but students as well. The Raiders played with a tough defensive line and strong running attack. With a record of 1-9 the team came out with an impressive win against Housatonic. For the 2nd year in a row a game was played right here at Suffield High School where players were cheered on by their own Wildcat fans. With an overall great season the team was led by captains Brady Schoner, Jesse Rocheleau, and Sean Partridge of Windsor Locks. "We were a very young team and it was going to be a tough season, but I really believe we gave it our all every game. I'll never forget the years I played with the Raiders" - Brady Schoner

JUNIOR VARSITY

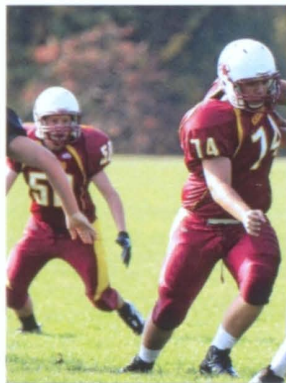

The Raider's Cheerleaders are made up of athletes from Suffield, Windsor Locks, and East Granby. With about half of the cheerleaders coming from Suffield, the team was made up mostly of freshmen and sophomores. These girls really stepped up to bring a lot of new talent to the team and make this a great season. As cheerleaders these girls did more than just cheer, they inspired. Without these Raider cheerleaders the football team would not have had the season they had. The cheerleaders were led by two new coaches, Jenn and Heather, who proved to be tougher than any previous coaches. With lots of practice and dedication these girls were able to reach the highest level of athleticism by the end of the season and perform stunts perfectly. With an unforgettable season the team was led by Captains Meaghan Moriarty, Courtney Miller, Natalie Lareau, and Marcie Junk.

BOYS CROSS COUNTRY

VARSITY AND JUNIOR VARSITY

The entire boys' lacrosse team agrees that they had a good season. Jimmy Clark, Pat Begley, Kyle Laviana, Kevin Powell, Matt Guilmette, Ben Gee, Shawn Andrade (in no particular order) were in the team's top seven and proved to be great role models for the rest of the runners. Senior Nick Leahey admitted, "It's a very promising team in the coming years," and he was sad he couldn't be a part of it. He and the other seniors, Kevin Kaczmarek, Ryan Keyse and Jimmy Clark, will be missed greatly. Everyone worked hard as a whole and placed 3rd in the NCCC championship overall, led by captains Jimmy Clark, Patrick Begley and Kevin Powell. Mr. Casolari proudly said, "We were the only team to win against the team who won the NCCC tournament." An impressive feat for the whole team, good work!

The Girls' Cross Country team had a good season overall. The Varsity top seven were Elizabeth Rigby, Laura Sweeney, Nina Begley, Monique LaBarre, Katelyn Corr and Kellen McGann. The four All-Conference runners were Nina Begley, who came in second place at the Conference Championships, Elizabeth Rigby, Laura Sweeney, and Hannah Gardocki. Hannah, captain for two years in a row, said about the team, "Running is thought of as an individual sport, but it's the support of your teammates and the common goal that make cross country a team effort and a great experience." The success of this year's team wasn't defined by an outstanding star runner but the consistency and togetherness of the runners as a whole, with the top runners usually finishing in a tight group. SHS is so proud of each team member and looks forward to more greatness in the future!

GIRLS SWIMMING

VARSITY

Thanks to the generosity of Suffield Academy, for the first time since the High School's Varsity Swimming & Diving teams were established they have been able to call a Suffield pool their home. The girl's team had a remarkable season, finishing with a record of seven wins, six losses, and one tie. Of the team's twenty five swimmers, ten of the girls qualified for states. Of those who made it to finals, Holly Corcoran finished 13th in 100 fly, Gloria Sutton finished 17th in 500 free, Anna Boucher finished 16th in 100 back and 23rd in 50 free, and Melissa McCarthy came in 5th for diving. Although the season seemed to have ended too quickly for most of the girls, the memories made through the swim team are sure to last a lifetime!

The 2013 Boys' Swimming & Diving Team had an outstanding season. Facing teams almost triple in size the boys finished the season with a record of four wins and ten losses. Individual highlights include Kinser Bonner, Connor Donahue, Noah Roy and Kyle Eheander qualifying for states in two events each. Matt Dulude, Bryan Donahue and Joe Ouellette also joined the state team swimming in relays. The team finished 17th out of 25 teams at the Class S State Finals. Kyle finished 1st in the 100 fly and 200 free, setting both personal best records and new school records. Kyle went on to the State Open where he finished 10th in the 100 fly and 11th in the 200 free. "Get Mad Chisled," Cptn. CO-ED INDOOR TRACK

The co-ed indoor track team, although small, always gets results. The girls placed 6th overall in the NCCC, led by Nur Hamideh and Elizabeth Rigby. Nur is a Conference champion for the long jump, as well, and has proven to be a great role model to her teammates. She and Lauren Izabel were awarded All-conference selections. Nur and Elizabeth will be sorely missed next year! The boys' team will be losing three outstanding seniors: Jimmy Clark and Bumjoon Park, both captains, and Josh Cardin. Jimmy stood out this year for placing 5th in the state meet for the 3200 meter run, and for earning the title of Conference champion in the 1000 m run. The Junior Varsity Hockey team had quite a few new players this year. With eight new faces to add to the team it made things that much more interesting. Everyday meeting up for practices and games after school, these athletes sacrificed personal time to perform in a group function that not only added to their strengths, but cooperation skills as well. As with all sports, there is no greater feeling than a victory. Yet they can and do always learn from their losses as well and continue to improve themselves. BOYS BASKETBALL

VARSITY

The 2012-13 season was memorable for the Boys' Varsity Basketball team; with a record of 12 wins 9 losses. Though they had their struggles, their effort and close relationship as a team helped push them towards more successful games. For many of the starting players they were considered star players on and off the court. Adorned with awards were players; Damien Gunn who was Booster Club Athlete of the Month for March, Tyron Williams made All Conference and All State Player, and Junior Woodhouse was awarded with the much coveted MVP title. These athletes, and fellow teammates, succeeded in qualifying for states but unfortunately lost to Goodwin Tech during the first round. DANCE TEAM

VARSITY

The 2013-12 season for the Girls' Dance Team was an amazing experience for the girls. They overcame the difficulty of welcoming new coaches, Jess Quagrioli and Michelle Kupec. Moreover, the coaches helped ready the girls for an NCCC competition that they ended up exhibiting at. Over the years, Dance Team had been a more hip-hop oriented dance group; yet, with the help of the coaches they were able to transfer into a more modern dance style infused with jazz. The captains of the Dance Team, Andréa Miller and Katie Madison, helped choreograph with the coaches numerous dances. One in particular, was the team favorite, The Beyoncé Dance. Which was a mix of three Beyoncé songs: Crazy in Love, Lose My Breath, and Single Ladies. For many of the girls, they look forward to Dance Team season all year; it is a very close knit group of girls who share a love for dance. For the Cheerleading Team, the 2012-13 season was by far their best. The team recieved many new underclassman thus having the biggest team to date with a total of 22 girls. Many of the new girls were experineced gymnasts or enhanced the team as a whole. This helped the girls achieve a first by competing at both the NCCC and Night's Duel. The cheerleaders worked incredibly hard during both competitions and placed 2nd at Night's duel and should have placed 2nd for NCCC but due to a deduction they were sadly robbed the 2nd place spot. The captains of the team were Meg Moriarty, Courtney Miller and Taylor Drinkwater; they worked incredibly hard during the season to improve the team and relationships between the girls. Meg and Taylor are some of the original cheerleaders from 2009-10, which in turn this season was the last for the original girls. What an amazing four years they have cheered through, and the four years they were able to create a competing team.

SPRING SPORTS 2013

For the first time ever, the yearbook staff has been able to highlight the spring sports of the 2012-2013 school year. A later deadline meant that as a staff, we were able to cover more current events of the school year, and spring sports had to be one of them. We unanimously decided that recognizing these teams was a great idea for the book. We hope you enjoy!

SPRING 2013

CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES

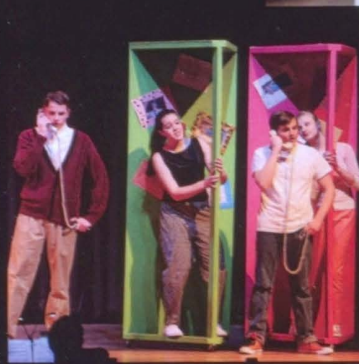

at Suffield High School

Clubs and activities are a primary and integral aspect of our high school community. They bring students as well as faculty members together based around common interests, and there is something for everyone. Whether you are new at the school or have been involved with several clubs, there is always more to see and more to participate in. From Anime Club to Robotics, from Spirit Night to Volleyball Marathon, the options are endless. By joining clubs and going to events, you can make friendships that last a lifetime and learn more about your school community. So go out there, have fun and get involved!

Amongst the many opportunities Suffield High School presents to accomplished students, is a chance to further enrich themselves in the foreign language of choice. Many French language students had this opportunity to explore and learn more about the French culture. The small group of students were first set up with a pen pal to whom they wrote back and forth and video conferenced over a period of time before the trip; which transpired during mid April of 2012. On the day of departure they left through the local airport, Bradley International, to the Philadelphia airport from where the students flew over seas to the Charles de Gualle Airport in Paris. From there they traveled by train to the neighboring town of Tours where the pen pals resided. With the welcoming of their pen pals, the Suffield students stayed with their pen pal's family for most of the duration of the trip. There the Suffield students enjoyed many day to day French activities such as copious visits to cafés, tours of castle (no pun intended), views of vineyards, and even some familiar laser tag. Moreover, they were also given the chance to shadow their pen pals at their secondary school Lycees Des Cortes. After the five day experience in Tours, the Suffield students traveled back to Paris where they stayed in a small hotel within a beautiful neighborhood. They continued their trip with a traditional Paris experience; seeing the Louvre, Eiffel Tower, Notre Dame, dinning in Parisian cafés and restaurants. Yet, with much dismay the French trip came to an end and it was time to return home. Luckily there was a silver lining; two of the French pen pals visited the Suffield students for 1 week. Helen Collin's pen pal Anne-Sophie and Nur Hamideh's pen pal Noemie. This was a once in a lifetime experience that both the French students and Suffield students will forever keep. C'est la vie!

A Night in Central Park PROM 2012

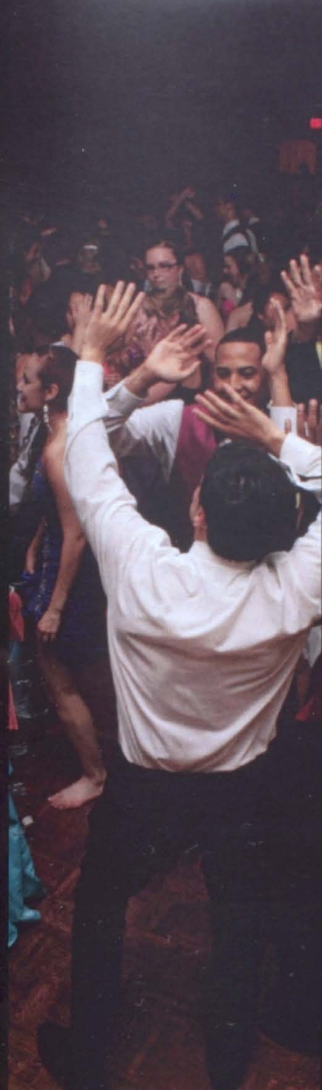

The day began with hair and nail appointments. Students started preparing for the 2012 prom right after school. Most of the ladies got their hair and nails done while the men got their tuxes ready! Many going to prom could not resist the traditional photos taken before the night with their prom dates and friends. All the ladies wore elaborate prom dresses, and some even matched their dates' tuxes. Most arrived at La Renaissance in limousines or in other spiffed-up cars with their dates and friends. Pictures were taken outside and inside as everyone arrived and the excitement grew. "I was waiting for this night ever since I was a freshman. I never thought it would be this great!" says current senior Kevin Kulas. Later on in the night, students showed off their dance moves. The DJ played a wide selection of music that appealed to all prom-goers. Additionally, the excellent decorations for the theme "A Night in Central Park" definitely captured the essence that everyone loved. As soon as the extravagant dinner was finished, students shuffled on to the dance floor which was never left empty throughout the night. The senior prom committee surely did a wonderful job putting this night together for the rest of the prom attendees.

SUFFIELD ON THE GREEN

Suffield on the Green is an annual tradition that has been going on for several years. Everybody in town looks forward to this end of summer event in early September, and it is surely an enjoyable time for all. In 2012, Suffield on the Green had a few minor setbacks. After intense thunderstorms accompanied by tornado warnings caused the Green to shut down at around 1pm on Saturday the 8th. However, hopes were high for Sunday's weather. With hours extended to 6pm on Sunday, Suffield on the Green proved to be a huge success, especially for students of Suffield High School. The classes of 2013, 2014 and 2015 all organized their own booths for Class Council, keeping in mind some creative sale ideas, such as the traditional Senior Dunk Tank. The juniors had the idea of selling cupcakes and encouraging people to create their own, and the sophomores gave kids the opportunity to win goldfish. Other groups including Model UN made an appearance at the Green as well. There was clearly a great student turnout this year!

LEFT Laura and Brenna Frechette are enjoying some sisterly bonding while tending to the 2013 Class Council booth. They were glad to have been able to help out although they were not on Class Council.

LEFT "I had so much fun raising money for our class. We were surprised to have recovered so quickly from Saturday when the Green shut down early. Definitely a success!" says Katie Madison, 2013 class president, on the dunk tank and class council booth. There were many seniors eager to help out with managing the booth on Sunday.

LEFT "Not a lot went right for us..." says John Zawawi, 2015 Class President, about some booth complications. But fortunately the sophomores were able to recover from their losses.

LEFT Maria Porcello and Erin Reynolds take charge of the 2014 Class Council booth. Their booth consisted of gourmet cupcakes as well as a raffle to win a gift basket.

MAGICAL MARDI GRAS

FRESHMEN AT SPIRIT NIGHT

RIGHT The freshmen competed against the seniors during the tug-a-war portion of Spirit Night. This surely only added to the intimidation felt by the freshmen after the notorious "Freshmen" chant. Although the seniors won, those who participated were glad to have had the experience.

THE FABULOUS LAS VEGAS

RIGHT Stanley Guy and Gabby St. Onge competing in the hula hoop contest in the games portion of Spirit Night. The sophomores came out very strong and eager to compete in the games against the upperclassmen.

One's second Spirit Night experience is usually better than any other. Everyone is excited that the uncertainty and intimidation of freshman year is over, but students are still thoroughly impressed by the skits of the upperclassmen. And after delivering a successful first skit performance last year, the sophomores were ready to take on the challenge of preparation again this Fall. Although many theme ideas had to be compromised, the sophomores were fortunately able to focus their theme around the idea of night life in Las Vegas. After all the details were worked out, they dubbed their theme "The Fabulous Las Vegas" and began preparing for Spirit Night itself. It was clear that their hard work and rehearsals paid off when the night came. The realistic props, some of which included a record player, a city backdrop and a hotel, not only left the crowd in awe, but earned the class an astounding second place for decorations above the juniors. Overall, the sophomores were enthusiastic about the results of the night, and they are definitely looking forward to preparing an outstanding skit as upperclassmen next year.

BLACK HOLE

JUNIORS AT SPIRIT NIGHT

The juniors came prepared to Spirit Night this year with not only a creative and original idea, but interesting props and decorations. To compliment the theme of Black Hole, the 11th graders made a glowing planet, a splatter painted couch, and several black lights.

Their skit followed three girls played by Erin Kost, Lauren Johnson and Jackie Rupp through their wild adventure into an opposite dimension. Unfortunately, due to technical difficulties, the skit had to be start over three times before it ran through completely.

After coming out of the other side of the black hole, the girls encountered a species of alien, one of which (Tim Vindigni) fell in love with one of the human girls! After experiencing the space-like culture shock, the skit concluded with a bang and roaring applause. When the votes were tallied up, the juniors came in a solid third place overall. Congratulations Class of 2014!

LOST IN THE SANDS OF TIME

SENIORS AT SPIRIT NIGHT

It was the last chance for the Class of 2013 to bring their A-game at Spirit Night, and they sure blew the competition out of the water this year. In the past, the group of skit participants have always managed to create an original storyline with outstanding and realistic props. After coming in 2nd place in 2010 for their New York City skit, hopes were high for their last two years. The seniors came up with an ancient Egypt-themed skit titled "Lost In The Sands of Time," and prepared a thorough and original plot that they were sure would entice the audience.

The skit began with a glimpse at common life in an Egyptian village. This included commoners at a marketplace and a camel being lead by a pharaoh. After this, the skit moved to present day Egypt, where archaeologists (Kevin Kulas & Hannah Gardocki) were observing artifacts discovered at the site of the old kingdom. With each artifact discovered, an archaeologist was taken away by the spirits of the lost kingdom. As time went on, the spirits such as the commoners, temptresses and the queen grew stronger and more realistic. This symbolized the recapture of power over the lost kingdom once and for all.

Everyone agreed that the skit was well-prepared and action-packed, keeping spectators on the edge of their seats for the whole 7 minutes. Unfortunately, when the night ended the judges made an error in tallying scores by leaving out the skit points. As a result, the juniors were announced as the winners of Spirit Night. However, a close recount was done afterward, showing a clear senior win. This was announced in school two days later.

ABOVE The senior skit participants bow to the re-crowned Queen (played by Savannah Farhad), the finishing touch to their performance.

RIGHT Tony Cordiliko and Sam Cordiliko guide the camel (Grady McKay and Julie Rolla) through the skit. This brought some lighthearted humor to the skit.

ABOVE (Cast 1) Kevin Kulas, playing the role of Ben, watches as Kelly, playing Barbara, slowly goes insane due to her zombie scare earlier in the show.

RIGHT Emily Brooks, playing Barbara in Cast A, becomes frightened at the news of her situation and clutches her knife tightly, preparing for the worst.

This fall, the drama department decided to put on their own rendition of the popular movie Night of the Living Dead! Additionally, a decision was made to present the show based around a double-casted system. The two casts, Cast 1 and Cast A, performed every other night for four nights. The principal roles in one cast even acted as zombies for the other cast.

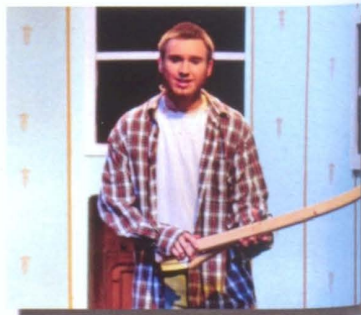

The plot follows a group of frantic townspeople who are endlessly trying to defend themselves from an apocalyptic zombie attack. Countless efforts are made to escape town, communicate with the outside, and even ward off zombie attacks indoors.

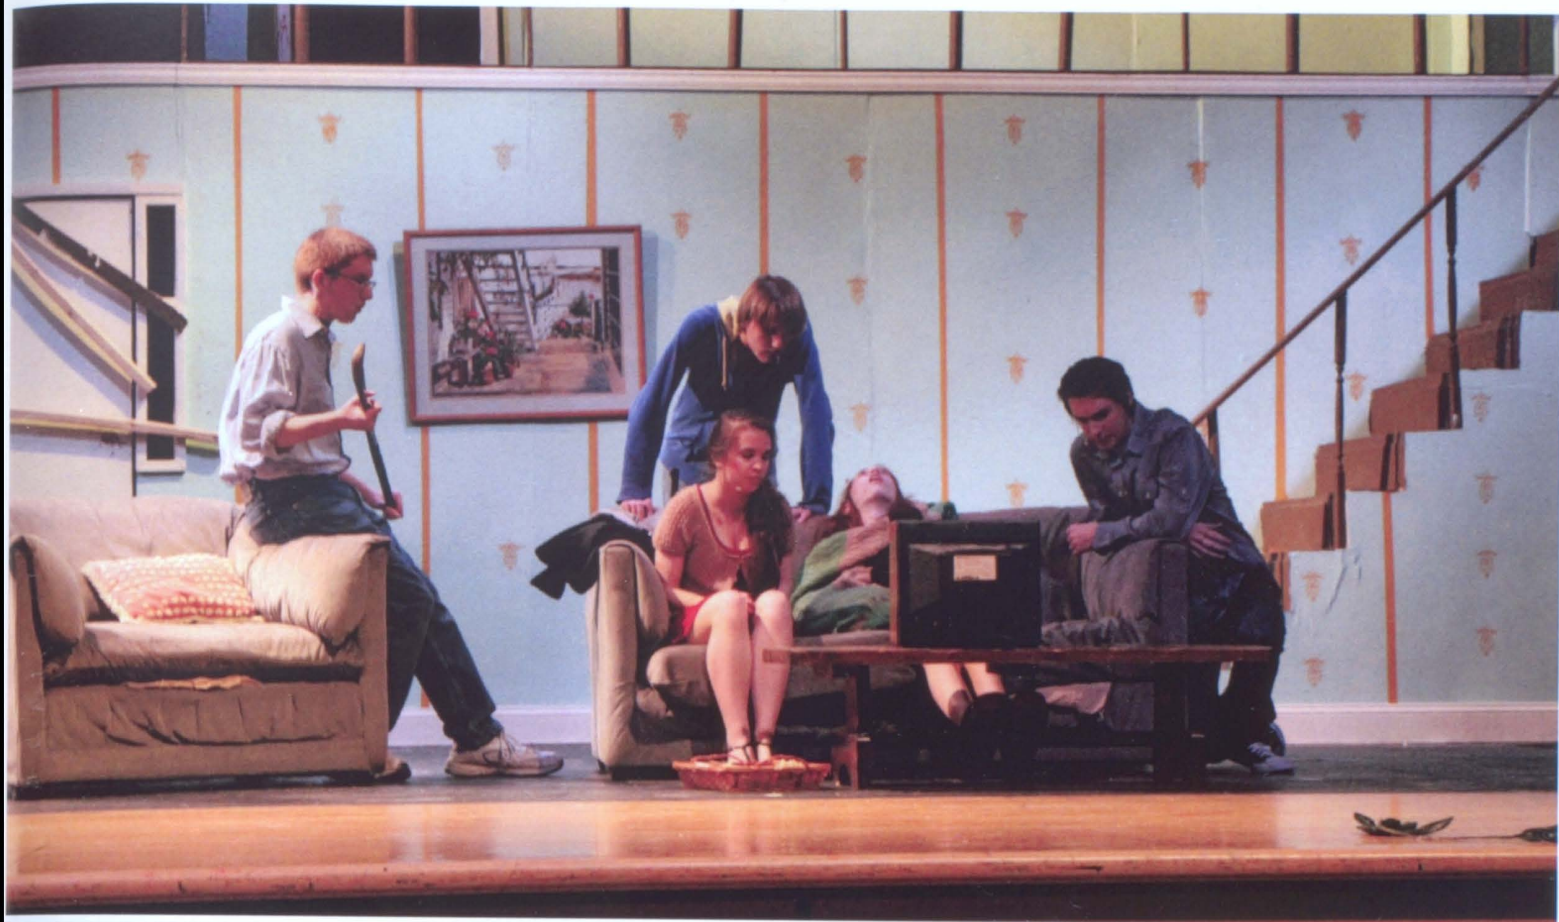

Everyone who saw the production agreed that the suspense was high the entire show, and that it kept the audience on the edge of their seats the whole night. Additionally, the double cast system was able to freshen things up for people who saw it more than once. This production was made possible by the fantastic direction of Stephannie Holland, thank you everyone for all the hard work!

RIGHT Yearbook Staff goes global! Paul Struck and Katherine Eastman embrace by the majestic fountain in La Plaza de España.

Ah, Spain. The country of red and yellow. The country of beautiful beaches, posh cities, breathtaking mountains, amazing food, and lively, fascinating culture. Every day of this one-week trip was a new adventure, filled to the very brim with Spanish culture and history. The group's bustling schedule was organized primarily by their tour guide, James Haines, who spiced up their travels with his strong English accent. The faculty members accompanying the students were Sr. Shultis, Sra. Messmer, Sr. Blake, Prof. Furie, Sr. Faria, and Sra. Faria. Actually getting to Spain included a bus ride to Boston, a plane ride to Zurich, Switzerland, and another plane ride to Madrid, Spain. The second they arrived, students were immersed in the sights and sounds of the modern city of Madrid. It was there that they marveled at the architecture of La Plaza Mayor, La Paza del Sol, El Palacio Real, and La Plaza del Toros, and visited museums such as El Prado and La Reina Sofia. Students were also given the opportunity to shop around in the foreign clothing stores and tourist shops and choose from various restaurants to eat lunch. Almost every dinner eaten in Spain was a three-course meal already chosen by James, and each restaurant was unique in the food it served. After Madrid, the group traveled to the warmer climates of southern Spain and certainly appreciated a break from the chill. Segovia was next, where students were in awe of the huge aqueduct used to carry water into the city in the late 1900's. Then was Toledo, famous for its swordmaking and marzipan. The group stayed in a nice hotel in Sevilla and took day trips to Cordoba, where an enormous castle was explored, and Granada, home of the Alhambra. Everyone enjoyed a long day of dancing with a Flamenco dancing class, an authentic Flamenco show, and dancing on a boat cruising down the Guadalquivir River as a surprise treat. The last stop was the tropical Torremolinos, where students and chaperones alike could unwind by the Mediterranean Sea with some shopping and walking on the beach. Finally, it was time to say "Adios!" to Spain, and everyone was off to the airport. Unexpectedly, the flight back to Zurich was delayed and the tired students got to stay the night in a fancy Swiss hotel. But you have to wake up from a good dream eventually: everyone arrived home on a Saturday night, although each student was much more worldly and inspired by everything Spain offered them!

From seven o'clock Friday evening, March 15th, to six in the morning on Saturday, March 16th, Suffield High School students could be found competing against each other in the annual volleyball tournament hosted by the National Honor Society. Amidst sleeping bags, games and hungry teens, the thirty teams enjoyed eleven hours of non-stop volleyball in the SHS gymnasium. Players brought into the commons televisions, blankets, endless bags of food/candy and mountains of soda and water to keep themselves entertained (and awake!) when not engaged in a game. They participated in a round robin style tournament going on throughout the night. Rivalries were hot this year and every team and team member played to the best of his or her own ability. As the hours wore on, many were unsure of who would take home the championship. However, the all-senior team Animal Playpen came out on top after, overtaking the underdog underclassman team Double Stuff with a close final score. The 2013 Volleyball Marathon proved to be yet another outstanding success, making the night unforgettable! All of the underclassmen are looking forward to this crazy night again next year.

This spring, the Suffield High School Drama Club yet again had the opportunity to put on a musical. Everyone was excited to see what the show would be, and when January came, students were informed that the spring production would be Bye Bye Birdie!, a Broadway musical made after the 1963 movie. The story follows Albert Peterson (Paul Struck), a music producer for the enticing rock star Conrad Birdie (Doug V-S), who has just been drafted into the army. Albert must make money to retire, so him and Rosie (Navia Morrison), his long time love interest, figure out a way to have Conrad perform on the Ed Sullivan show one last time before he leaves. A 15 year old girl from a rural town, Kim McAfee (Erin Fields) is chosen to kiss Conrad on the show after his song. Through crazy fangirls, ice houses, screaming parents and more, Albert and Rosie end up together and Conrad goes out with a bang. Thanks to directors Stephannie Holland and Christine Hoffacker, a fantastic spring musical was once again possible. Thank you to everyone who helped make the production a success!

RIGHT Elliot Phelps and Connor Bouchard were the hosts of the night, and sure did a great job keeping the crowd entertained and praising all of the contestants.

The high expectations for the Mr. Suffield competition were fulfilled once again for the Class of 2013. The night began with humorous hosts Connor Bouchard and Elliot Phelps introducing the seven contestants: Paul Armata, Adam Holmes, Chris Luongo, Kevin Kazmerick, Dean Ravenola, Brendan Desmond-Johnson, Patrick Sullivan, and Joe Oullette, each with two dazzling escorts. Each contestant did their best to charm the audience with casual wear, swim wear, and formal wear. The evening also held a talent portion. Talents ranged from singing and playing the piano to DDR and an exercise routine. To judge the contestants' personalities and wit, the boys had to answer a series of questions asked by Mr. McCullough and Mr. Fortunato. During a short intermission, ballots were handed out and votes were tallied. Joe Oullette, who composed and performed his own song on the piano while dressed in his classy suit, took the crown home in the end. Every contestant for Mr. Suffield had a blast putting on a show. Everyone involved - competitors, escorts, teachers, and onlookers - came together to create a great memory for the Class of 2013.

VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE

One of the greatest aspects of Suffield High School is the agriscience program. Students from the surrounding towns of Enfield, Windsor Locks, Granby, East Granby, Canton, Simsbury, Hartford, and many others come to Suffield everyday to share their love for agriscience. The different categories of interest consist of large and small animals, aquaculture, foodscience, wildlife, and shop. Each student must complete 150 hours of a special project each year in order to obtain an agriscience degree upon graduation. This project may be experimental, placement, or entrepreneurship and is presented to the class at the end of the year. One of the most exciting events this year included the Ag-Expo, an exposition put on every two years by the agriscience students. The tours allowed children and other visitors to participate in hands on activities such as bird house making, planting, and the petting zoo. Vocational Agriculture is a wonderful program that brings so many kids together with a common interest. "Joining Ag has been one of the best decisions of my life. Through the program I've made so many new friends and had so many great experiences. Vo-Ag has helped bring me closer to my dream of being a marine biologist" - Hannah Lessard

Dear Gianna,

You continue to make us so very proud, and as we look back, we can't help but smile for the beautiful woman you have become. As you continue your journey, treasure each moment. You shall laugh, love, and cry, but go at your own pace and be the person you wish to be, for your true beauty lies within.

We will forever be by your side.

Love Always,

Mommy, Daddy & Julian

Congratulations Gianna!!!

Congratulations Meaghan

You're the one that has been on the sideline cheering the loudest and strongest for the past four years, only what you didn't know was that we were cheering for you!!

You've accomplished much to be proud of these high school years, it is with no doubt that you will continue to accomplish great things with the upcoming new chapter in your life.

We'll be cheering you on then too!!

Girls, thanks for letting us be a part of your lives. Thank you for all the laughter and wonderful memories..... may there be many more. Best wishes to you and the rest of the SHS class of 2013.

BEST FRIENDS

CONGRATULATIONS COURTNEY!!!

You are an amazing young lady!!! We are so proud of you!!! You have always been the little girl who had to be involved in every activity possible. From gymnastics, to dancing, to your true love Cheerleading, you have shown an amazing spirit and drive that most people don't experience in their whole lives. Always stay so driven and reach for the stars!!! Good luck in college! We know you will find success wherever you go and are truly excited for you on your next great adventure!! !We will miss you!!!

We love you more!!!
